2ND KIDDIE ART CLASS SATURDAY

The success of the first children's art class has spurred the Torrance Recreation Department to start a second class to begin Saturday.

The six-week series will be held from Feb. 22 to April 5 at the Torrance Municipal Plunge. Lessons will be given to six to eight-year-olds from 1 to 2:30 p.m., with 9-15 year-olds taking over the easels from 2:30 to 4 p.m.

Miss Moni Gillett, noted local artist, will again be the instructor.

There is a $5 fee to cover the cost of supplies and materials and this may be paid at the first meeting. Children must be pre-registered with the Torrance Recreation Department, 3031 Torrance Blvd.

Montgomery High School Rites Sunday

Bishop Montgomery High School will be officially dedicated this Sunday at 2 p.m. with his Eminence, James Francis Cardinal McIntyre, officiating, according to Father Michael McNulty, principal.

Although opened last fall, completion of landscaping and other finishing touches were not accomplished until recently.

Cardinal McIntyre will bless the school, flags, and crucifixes in each room. Flags will be raised in the ceremonies with the American Legion acting as color guard and the Knights of Columbus acting as guards of honor.

Msgr. Martin McNicholas, former archdiocesan superintendent of school and now Vicar for Religious, will be the principal speaker with Cardinal McIntyre responding. Mayors Albert Isen of Torrance and LeRoy Center of Redondo Beach also will speak.

Parents and others also will join in the ceremonies. The school now has 268 students in ninth grade classes and next year will add some 300 to 400 additional freshmen in its expansion program. More buildings also will be added later, Father McNulty reported.
